Serving the mid-south since 1985

Gannett Offset/Nashville was established in 1985 to print USA TODAY for the mid-south region. In 1986 USA TODAY named Gannett Offset/Nashville the number one overall print site for quality and productivity. We are continually striving to give all of our customers the best product when they need it.

Prepress

Our prepress department is on the cutting edge of technology. We continually upgrade our software to the most current versions. Our staff can help you create your job or output your electronic files directly to film. We offer the flexibility of Mac and PC platforms. We are flexible to accept digital files from the Internet, or from removable storage devices.

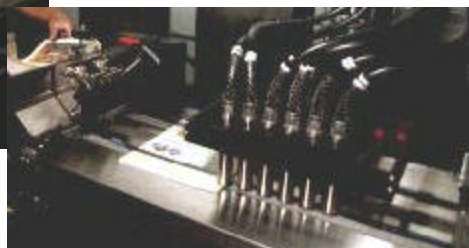

Press

Our 18 units of Goss Urbanite is the largest commercial cold web press in the Middle Tennessee region. Our capabilities range from 4 - page tabloids up 128 - page tabloids with 40 pages of process color in one signature. We also offer online quarter folding.

Postpress

Our postpress department includes a wide variety of services such as inserting, saddle stitching and trimming, Cheshire labeling, ink jet addressing and shipping. We utilize our delivery truck to ensure timely delivery of our customers' products.

Committed to giving our customers the best quality and service.
